DON'T CALL US, WE'LL CALL YOU!

Two years ago, I moved to a new neighbourhood. There seemed to be very ------people in this area without telephones, so I expected to get a new phone quickly. I applied for one as soon as I moved into my new house. 'We aren't supplying ---------- new phones in your area', an engineer told me. '---------- people want new phones at the moment and the company is employing ---------- engineers than last year so as to save money. A new phone won't cost you ---------- money, but it will take ---------- time. We can't do anything for you before December. 'You need ---------- patience if you're waiting for a new phone and you need --------- friends whose phones you can use as well. Fortunately, I had both. December came and went, but there was no sign of a phone. I went to the company's local office to protest. 'They told me I'd have a phone by December,' I protested. 'Which year?' the assistant asked.
